

Creator: Kamran Khadivi-Dimbali

CSC 340 Project 4

The time complexity problems were solved in the following manner included on the images below. Ultimately what matters is the O notation of the equation, as constants do not matter when it comes down to algorithms that will be run a great many times.

